Please review and acknowledge your understanding of the rules by signing below:

NCAA Rules
- Student-athlete host must be eligible according to NCAA standards.
- The host cannot provide cash to the prospect for any reason. You may not purchase souvenirs such as T-shirts or other institutional mementos.
- The host must save all receipts and give them to the coach at the end of the visit
- All entertainment must occur within 30 miles of the Smith campus.
- The host may not provide transportation to a home or away contest. Prospects cannot travel in Smith Athletic vans, on the bus, or Smith SGA vans.
- When a prospect is watching a contest, they must sit in the area for general spectators (they cannot sit in the press box, at the scoring table, or in the team bench area).
- Prospects may participate in physical workouts or other recreational activities, as long as they are not organized or observed by the head coach or members of the athletic department.
- Prospects may not use our athletic training facilities or be seen by our athletic training staff.
- All meals must occur on campus unless the college dining facilities are closed.
- Prospects can participate in pre-game or post-game meals or snacks.

Conduct
- NCAA rules must be followed by both host and prospect as listed above. If at any time a student-athlete is unsure of NCAA rules, she should contact the coaching staff immediately.
- Individuals involved in the recruiting visit (including the prospect) are expected to act in a reasonable manner and to abide by the law (e.g. alcohol and drug laws).
- A prospect is never to be left alone. Be sure that you have a team member or friend spend time with the prospect you are hosting if you have another commitment.
- Do not engage in negative recruiting. Focus on talking about all the positive aspects of being a student (and a student athlete) at Smith.
- The student host and the prospective student athlete must follow any additional rules set by your coach (e.g. curfew, team policies, etc)

TO BE COMPLETED BY THE STUDENT-HOST AND COACH:

I have reviewed and read the above instructions and I was provided the opportunity to ask any questions regarding what is expected of me during this recruiting visit. I understand that it is the responsibility of the student host to provide a positive and safe experience for the prospective student athlete. If any questions or problems arise, the host or prospect will contact the coach or athletics administration immediately. The student host and the prospective student athlete must conduct themselves in a manner that is consistent with NCAA rules, Smith College policy and state and federal law. If the host does not abide by the guidelines outlined above, she may be withheld from practice or competition.
